

Stevenson Rules for VP Qualifications May Bar Sen. Kefauver from Race

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS, Chicago (U)—Adlai E. Stevenson has laid down qualifications which apparently would disqualify Sen. Estes Kefauver for second place on the Democratic ticket, Stevenson campaign advisers said today.

They said that Stevenson, of course, would like to be nominated for the presidency with a running mate who would strengthen the national ticket—as Kefauver might do with some segments of voters.

Adlai Way Ahead

But Stevenson is said to believe it is of great importance that a vice presidential nominee be an effective agent for a White House legislative program. As a lone wolf member of the Senate, Kefauver would have limited influence in that direction.

How They Make Ice For Marion Fair Ice Show

MEMO FROM CURT: Yours truly was one of the judges of floats at the Marion fair last night. It is the fair centennial, and they are making quite a do of it. Didn't get much applause when the parade winners were announced, but no boos either, so we three judges must have done a fairly decent job.

But, what intrigued me, was the preparation under way for the "Holiday on Ice" to be staged at the fair beginning tonight.

If this be free advertising, make the most of it, but when the show opens tonight, there will be a 60 by 95 foot skating rink in front of the grandstand, smooth as a smooth floor and frozen to skating perfection, despite the hot weather.

Here's how they do it.

A framework the size of the rink was placed on a level spot occupying a part of the race track and an area to the east of the grandstand in front of the grandstand.

A compressor, many hundreds times the capacity of a deep freeze compressor is housed in a trailer and a feed line runs to the rink area, the line being covered with sawdust to insulate it.

This pipe, when it reaches the rink area, is divided into many small pipes or coils, similar to the tubing used in floor or ceiling radiant heating arrangements in buildings.

Sand was used as a fill around the tubes and covers them partially. Then about 60 tons of ice was placed over the tubes to act as a booster for the cooling agent in the tubes, and by the time the ice began to melt, the freezing agent started picking up to a point where the entire mass was frozen.

This was all started Saturday night. Sections of plywood were placed over the area and a tarpaulin further insulated it from the severe heat Sunday and yesterday. Last night, sections of the tarpaulin and plywood were removed and water was sprayed on with a hose, freezing as it fell.

This operation will continue until the ice is as thick as desired, then a rotary shaver similar to a sanding machine will be used to level it.

The traveling show has two rinks, one going ahead to the next location, which is the Illinois State fair, where the show opens Sunday.

The rink at Marion had arrived in advance of closing of the show being held in one of the Dakotas last week-end, and the one which was used there is on its way to Springfield.

Winton Walkup, also one of the float judges and an Illinois Central official of Carbondale, said three baggage cars and two Pullmans were required to haul the paraphernalia and cast of the show.

Folks who attended the first Marion fair a hundred years ago would never have believed their descendants would see an ice show in 100 degree weather.

Dennis Revokes Probation of 14-Year-Old Boy

Admits Theft of $12 from Purse of Judge's Secretary

A 14-year-old lad was arraigned yesterday for stealing $12 from the same court room where he received probation for theft nearly a year ago.

He is George Goulsby of Hardin county, formerly of Harrisburg, who was turned over to the Illinois Youth Commission by County Judge Trafton Dennis after revocation of the probation by the judge. Judge Dennis had put the lad on probation 11 months ago after he had admitted nearly 40 thefts.

Saturday the youth came into the court house with candy, declaring he was selling it for a church at Shawneetown. At a time when nobody was in Judge Dennis' court room, he reached in a drawer and took a billfold containing $12 from a purse belonging to Judge Dennis' secretary, Miss Marilyn Towle.

Sheriff William T. Barrett said Goulsby readily admitted stealing the money when he was apprehended and questioned.

Yesterday was a day of oddities in Judge Dennis' court. In another action a mother and her 14-year-old son were sentenced. Hallie Little of Eldorado, the mother, was sentenced to a year in the women's institution at Dwight for contributing to the delinquency of her son, Gary Brown, and the lad was turned over to the Illinois Youth Commission. He was arrested in connection with thefts at the Federal Wholesale Co. in Eldorado and at the Gates concession stand at the Eldorado ball park. County officers said that the mother would not stay at home, letting her children roam at will.

This morning Deputy Sheriff James S. Lyon, accompanied by Mrs. Lyon, took Mrs. Little to Dwight and two men prisoners to the state farm at Vandalia. The men were Eugene Vineyard, sentenced to a year for drunken driving, and Jess Leithliter, sentenced to eight months for assault.

Britain, France Prepare Joint Force

Massive Airlift Will Fly Troops To Desert Outposts

LONDON (U)—Britain and France were reported today to have agreed to form a joint Mediterranean striking force spearheaded by a massive British airlift if action becomes necessary in the Suez Canal crisis.

In Washington, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told a conference of diplomats from 20 Latin American countries that Britain and France might use force unless Egypt adopts a more conciliatory policy. A spokesman for the diplomats indicated they gave Dulles their support for the U. S. policy of moderation.

Hopes for a successful Suez conference appeared dimmer, and Cairo reports said Egypt had called back its officers from Communist training centers to man Soviet-made submarines and other naval units.

In Cairo, meanwhile, Egyptian

President Gamal Abdel Nasser called a news conference for next Sunday when he is expected to disclose whether Egypt will attend the London Suez parley.

In Moscow, where the Soviet Union still has not announced it will attend the London conference, there also was a flurry of activity. Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov conferred with the French and British ambassadors. At the same time, Premier Nikolai Bulganin called in U. S. Ambassador Charles Bohlen.

British airline officials said Britain was preparing "the biggest airlift since the Berlin blockade" to fly shock troops to desert outposts in the Middle East. Hundreds of other troops were streaming toward the eastern Mediterranean aboard fast carriers.

Police Arrest Four Youths for Tearing Up City Stop Sign

Four local youths were picked up last night by city police in connection with the tearing up of a city stop sign and one of them, Billy Mallady, was held for further action.

Chief of Police Ross Lane said Mallady's car, containing Russell Weatherly, Loren Dale Schutte, James Willard Howard and Mallady, was seen stopped at Raymond and McKinley last night, where one of the youths jumped out, tore up a stop sign and threw it in the street.

A neighbor saw the action, got the license number, and called police, saying he saw the direction the car went and that he would try to pick up its trail.

A short time later the city police car spotted the car containing the four with the man who saw the action trailing close behind.

The four were taken to the city police station, where Weatherly said he was driving Mallady's car. Chief Lane said he received enough information from the boys to indicate that it was Mallady who jumped out and tore down the sign although Mallady denied it.

Autopsy Shows No Evidence of Foul Play in Death of Kendall Olds

SPRINGFIELD (U)—Coroner W. C. Telford said today an autopsy showed "no evidence of foul play" in the death of H. Kendall Olds, former aide to Orville E. Hodge, whose body was found last week in Lake Springfield.

Telford said a pathologist's report on the autopsy also failed to show any "organic disease" such as heart failure, which might have caused Olds' death.

The autopsy and a chemical analysis showed Olds was not intoxicated at the time of his death, Telford said.

He said the complete autopsy report, showing the exact cause of death, would not be released until an inquest Wednesday.

Hodge and Olds' widow, Thelma, are scheduled for a face-to-face meeting at the inquest.

Friends have blamed Olds' death, an apparent suicide, on depression over an apparently innocent part he played in cashing a check for Hodge which the ex-state auditor drew on state funds.

A psychiatrist, meanwhile, said Hodge is suffering "battle fatigue." Dr. Paul Cadwell, summoned to Hodge's luxurious Lake Spring field home, said there is nothing seriously wrong with Hodge physically, but that he is suffering from insomnia and loss of appetite.

The psychiatrist, called in by another doctor who found Hodge nervous and depressed, likened the former auditor's condition to battle fatigue.

He said it should clear up when charges against Hodge are settled. He faces indictments charging a mammoth embezzlement of state funds.

Cadwell said Hodge, once the picture of a gland-handing politician, now is depressed and remorseful.

The psychiatrist recommended that Hodge should not testify Wednesday at an inquest into the apparent suicide of his friend and press agent, H. Kendall Olds, whose body was found floating in Lake Springfield.

If Hodge showed up at the inquest, as his attorney has promised, he would have to face Olds' widow, who contends that her husband's death was not a suicide.

Most of Olds' friends believe he committed suicide in disillusionment and in the realization that he innocently helped Hodge cash a fraudulent check.

WORMAN, DOWLING ON SUBPENAS

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (U)—Subpenas were served today on Frank (Buster) Wortman, southern Illinois gangster, and his associate, Elmer Dowling, to appear before the county grand jury at Springfield on Friday in connection with the inquiry into the affairs of ousted State Auditor Orville E. Hodge.

Wortman and Dowling were served the subpoenas by an Illinois state trooper when they showed up at the federal building to appear before the federal grand jury which is investigating Wortman's activities.

Officials were also seeking to serve two other associates of Wortman, Thomas Berry, former Belleville gambler, and Sam Magin, Wortman's "business manager." Magin is scheduled to appear before the federal grand jury here on Thursday.

Coutrakon said the men will be questioned as to their connections with Hodge, central figure in a one - million - dollar state fund scandal.

Asks New Spirit Of Cooperation From Bulganin

President Sends Reply to Soviet Letter of June 6

WASHINGTON (U)—President Eisenhower chided Russia today for welshing on promises made at Geneva and appealed for new efforts to rid the world of fear.

In a personal letter to Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin Mr. Eisenhower said:

"I must confess that I am perplexed as to how we can work together constructively if agreements which are negotiated at the highest level after the most thorough exploration do not seem dependable."

Rebuking Soviet failure to fulfill promises given at the Big Four chiefs of state meeting in Geneva a year ago, the President added:

"May we not, Mr. Chairman, do more to realize the hopes which were born of our meeting in Geneva?"

He said "I earnestly appeal" for "a new spirit" in Soviet relations with the rest of the world in view of Russia's efforts to eradicate "some of the evils" of Stalinism.

Reply to June 6 Letter

Mr. Eisenhower's letter was in reply to a June 6 letter from Bulganin which the Soviet premier said Russia was cutting her armed forces and urged other countries to follow suit. The President said "such a reduction I welcome." But he made these points:

1. What's needed to eliminate "the fear and the vast cost" of national armaments is world controls which will encourage greater reductions. "I regret that we have made so little progress in this respect."

2. Russia rejected Mr. Eisenhower's proposals for aerial inspection and exchange of military blueprints on grounds it would be "an intelligence operation." But intelligence that checks on disarmament promises is just what's needed "in the interest of peace and international confidence. Can we not make progress on this?"

3. Bulganin's letter ignored the President's proposal of March 1 for freezing nuclear weapons stockpiles at some future date. Mr. Eisenhower said: "May I again urge careful consideration of the matter..."

Hopeful for Progress

4. After agreeing to free unification of Germany, Russia has indicated determination to keep that nation indefinitely divided. At this point the President said agreements with Russia "do not seem dependable."

The President said nonetheless he is hopeful that progress can be made on the key issue of controlling armaments. He said he realizes that the Soviet Union itself has been making efforts to "eradicate some of the evils" of an earlier period in the Soviet Union. He clearly referred to the downgrading of the late dictator Josef Stalin.

But the President said some of "those evils" were projected into the international field and even today "constitute a grievous obstacle to doing those things which we both agreed ought to be done." Mr. Eisenhower concluded with this appeal:

"This situation needs also to be remedied by a new spirit for which I earnestly appeal."

BY KENNETH O. GILMORE

WARNING to people who think highways are their own private wastebaskets:

Now it's not so easy to toss refuse out of your car window and get away with it.

Recently 13 states have stiffened their penalties for this offense. The problem has become serious, according to a survey by the family economics bureau of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co.

Heedless folks who drop trash are costing all of us, including themselves, plenty of dough. The American public has to pay out $15 to $20 a mile per year for someone to clean up the mess left behind motorists.

That's why we're delighted that some states are courageous enough to crack down on slovenly drivers.

For example, Georgia imposes a maximum fine of $1,000 or a year's imprisonment on litterbugs.

North Carolina arrested 81 trash strewers and convicted 80 of them in the first 12 months of its clean highways program.

Eight of these states which have sharpened their laws report that sloppy motorists have become considerably neater. That's pretty good proof that a get-tough policy works.

Bewildered Britons

A couple of British newspapers declare that the Republican party is "hounding" President Eisenhower into running for a second term. This statement involves two unproved arguments.

One is that Mr. Eisenhower's health is such that he ought not to run and doesn't want to. This has not been demonstrated.

The second is that the President is so weak-willed he can't resist party pressure. Britishers who knew him as allied commander in World War II should know better.

But American politics, and political figures, seem often to baffle many of our British cousins.

DREW PEARSON Says: Another Conflict of Interest Case Scented Inside Administration; Congressman Roosevelt Writes Ike About A T & T Men Working Inside Government; Brownell Withholds Records.

WASHINGTON—Jimmy Roosevelt of California, whose work as a congressman has been more effective than his work as a husband, has smelled a new conflict-of-interest case inside the Ike administration. Conflicts of interest have been one of Ike's betes noires, and this one involves the biggest monopoly in the nation—American Telephone and Telegraph.

Roosevelt has dug out the fact that a total of 28 American Tel and Tel employees or retired employees are either employed or have been employed inside the Eisenhower administration, and that they influenced the Justice Department in settling an anti-trust case against their own company.

This case, one of the most important brought under Truman, showed an inside deal between A T & T and its wholly owned subsidiary, Western Electric, to freeze out other electronics manufacturers. With electronics vital to guided missiles and national defense today, it's all-important to have as many electronics firms in business as possible.

However, after the antitrust division had spent several years preparing for a showdown trial, Attorney General Brownell negotiated a face-saving consent decree permitting the telephone company and its wholly owned subsidiary, Western Electric, to continue their monopoly relationship. They were not divorced.

Congressman Roosevelt now contends that this consent decree was an inside job, similar to the placing of Adolph Wenzell inside the government on the Dixon-Yates case.

BROWNELL REVERSES HIMSELF

The Justice Department has now publicly admitted that the Dixon-Yates-Wenzell case was a conflict-of-interest; but it took two years to make Brownell admit this. For months, the fact that Wenzell had been working inside the Budget Bureau was carefully hushed up. Attempts by Congress to subpoena information about him were refused. Inquiries by this column at the Budget Bureau and the White House were rebuffed.

But last month, Brownell, in an official charge before the U. S. courts, labeled Dixon-Yates a conflict of interest.

So far, Brownell has rebuffed both Jimmy Roosevelt and Cong. Emanuel Celler of New York regarding A T & T. When Celler wrote him asking for data regarding the A T & T consent decree, Brownell didn't even bother to reply. Instead, his hatchetman, William P. Rogers, replied: "This department cannot grant your request to examine our files relating to the decree in U. S. vs. American Telephone and Telegraph Co., et al."

Celler wrote back: "It is indeed strange that the attorney general would cavalierly deny a request of an appropriate committee of Congress, while at the same time the White House freely supplies confidential information to a journalist who is neither elected nor appointed to office."

He referred to the cabinet meeting minutes and other White House files given Robert Donovan of the New York Herald Tribune.

Meanwhile, Jimmy Roosevelt has now gone over Brownell's head. This week he wrote Eisenhower personally, stating that there was an A T & T conflict of interest inside the Eisenhower administration and demanding that the Justice Department open its records.

It's easy to predict what will happen to the Roosevelt letter. It will be sent by Sherman Adams to Brownell, and Brownell will say no.

ROOSEVELT'S WHIP

But in this case Roosevelt has the whip hand. In fact, he has two whips:

Whip No. 1 — He can subpoena records of A T & T and Western Electric. He can also subpoena all telephone executives who have been working for the government, and they cannot claim any privilege.

Whip No. 2 — He can move to set aside the consent decree between A T & T and the government. This can be done by Congress over the head of the Justice Department. Roosevelt, as chairman of a House Small Business subcommittee working with Celler, chairman of the Judiciary committee, is in a position to do this.

Meanwhile, here are some of the telephone officials Roosevelt has dug up who have been working inside the Eisenhower administration:

In the Office of Defense Mobilization: Victor E. Cooley, deputy director; Cole E. Armstrong; Harold M. Botkin; Albert J. Carey; George A. Landry; Charles W. Potter; Joseph D. Stockton; Charles E. Wampler; Benjamin F. Young.

In the Air Force: Donald A. Quarles, secretary of the Air Force (Mr. Quarles is retired from A T & T); John M. Ferry, special assistant to the undersecretary; Dr. Mervin J. Kelly; Stewart E. Miller.

In the Defense Department: William M. Day; G. D. Garner; Frederick J. Given; George B. Larkin; Walter A. MacNair; William H. Martin. At one time Robert T. Stevens, an A T & T director, was secretary of the Army.

In other branches of government: George McConaughy, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, which regulates the telephone company; Donald R. Belcher, assistant director of the budget; Robert Burgess, director of the census; A. B. Clark, national security agency; Stanley Damkroeger, Karl Honaman, George Ireland, and William Vanstort, department of commerce; Arthur W. Page, cabinet committee on transportation and organization.

While these teller one officials have been working inside the government or advising it, here are some of the concessions and contracts the telephone company has received from the government:

The defense department has sold most of the Army-Navy phone systems to A T & T and is negotiating to sell all of them. The interior department has sold many of the phone systems in the Americans have long been diversified in their interests. We have all enjoyed our freedom to read whatever we wish, to study any courses which we desire and to find avocations far afield from the vocations in which we make our livelihood.

Katyn Investigators Blame Soviet Police For Infamous Massacre

NEW YORK (U.P.)—Six congressmen who investigated the infamous Katyn Forest massacre have urged Red party boss Nikita Khrushchev to place the blame on Soviet secret police, it was disclosed Sunday.

The American Committee for the Investigation of the Katyn Massacre Inc. revealed a letter dated July 26 had been written to the Soviet Communist Party secretary. In it, Khrushchev was urged to tell the Russian people the horror was the work of the old NKVD under the late Lavrenti Beria.

Beria, who once headed the secret police, was executed for his part in the so-called "doctors plot" against the late Premier Josef Stalin's life.

As we broaden our knowledge let us not forget to study God's ways, God's commandments and God's plan for ourselves and for mankind.

Our amazement should be toward the things which the Creator has made possible rather than toward man's use of His gifts.

Sen. Dirksen Says Illinois Delegation To Back Nixon

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) said today that the Illinois delegation to the Republican National Convention is still backing Vice President Richard M. Nixon for a second term.

Dirksen called on President Eisenhower to discuss foreign aid legislation passed by Congress this year.

He said they did not discuss the current controversy over whether Nixon should be renominated.

But Dirksen told reporters that about six weeks ago the 60-member Illinois delegation to the GOP convention agreed to support Nixon. He said he knows of no defections.

Dirksen said he thinks Republican prospects in Illinois are good this year "notwithstanding" scandals in the state auditor's office.

Storms, Flash Floods Leave 14 Persons Dead

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Weather Bureau forecasters today promised clouds but no rain in the upper Ohio Valley where flash floods and high water struck Sunday during violent thunderstorms.

The storms and flooding left at least 14 persons dead in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio. Property damage was estimated in the millions.

The first of 1,200 persons to be evacuated from nearby Canonsburg, Pa., began moving back to their homes today. Wearied from the storm, they now faced the task of cleaning up.

Hundreds of others still took shelter in emergency quarters set up by the Red Cross, Salvation Army, municipal agencies and the Army.

National Guardsmen relieved rescue-tired Canonsburg auxiliary police, volunteer firemen and civil defense workers.

The water had swirled eight feet deep over key highways, bridges and residential streets, flooding wide areas and knocking many small industrial plants out of operation.

The high water posed little threat to Pittsburgh where the Ohio River crested at 24.8 feet, below flood stage, at 7 p. m. Monday. The only flooding occurred along the dock parking areas in Pittsburgh's Golden Triangle.

The Ohio River was expected to reach a 31.6 foot level near Wheeling, W. Va., about noon today. Flood stage at the Warwood Lock is 36 feet. But officials of the Wheeling Downs race track planned to cancel today's meeting should the waters rise above the expected level.

The storms, which killed nine persons in Pennsylvania, including three members of one family drowned in a flash flood near Fayette City, also caused widespread damage in neighboring West Virginia and Ohio.

Romantic Look in Suits and Coats for Fall

The waistline wanders this fall from high to low but wherever it stops, it creates a pretty line. Suit with a profile view (left) is in tweed that's more white than black. Jacket is hipbone length and skirt is back-panneled. The Empire silhouette (center) appears in town coat of imported English tweed with high-waisted effect defined by a narrow leather belt. Suit in deep red wool (right) has hipbone length jacket with envelope shoulder fold that extends from a soft scarf collar to a slightly bloused effect in the back. All three designs are from Arthur Jablov. All three demonstrate that wherever the waistline is set, it's designed to flatter.

Stengel Says GOP Owes State $4,000 For Broadcasts

CHICAGO (AP) — A Democrat said today that the Republican Party owes the state treasury $4,000 for political broadcasts sponsored by Orville E. Hodge, ousted state auditor.

State Rep. Richard Stengel, candidate for U. S. senator, sent a letter to GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall demanding that the Republicans "refund" that amount to the state.

Stengel charged that Hodge used $4,000 "from funds taken surreptitiously from the state treasury" to pay for radio and television time to urge a big vote for President Eisenhower in the April 10, Illinois primary.

"Since then Mr. Hodge has confessed to looting state funds amounting to at least 1 1/2 million dollars, and investigations are still proceeding before grand juries in Sangamon and Cook counties," he said.

"Since Mr. Hodge obviously was using the people's money for everything from the purchase of Florida hotels . . . to grass seed, it is most likely that the $4,000 of radio-TV time was paid for out of the citizens' money."

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP) — A three-year-old boy whose heart stopped during a routine tonsillectomy was in critical condition but still alive today. Doctors restored his heart beat by opening his chest and massaging the heart.

Doctors said the youngster, Bob Brayshaw, suffered a "one-in-a-million cardiac arrest, or heart stoppage" as a reaction to the anesthesia given him for the tonsillectomy. Doctors opened his chest and massaged the heart for about five minutes before it started beating again.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendment to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 6, 1956.

REVENUE AMENDMENT Article IX

Sec. 1. The General Assembly may define and classify property for taxation, but all such definitions and classifications shall be reasonable and be based solely on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned. All real estate shall constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may be classified separately. If any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax shall be uniform as to the class.

Sec. 2. The General Assembly may levy or authorize the levy of such other kinds of taxes as it may deem necessary, which shall be uniform upon the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax, but shall not levy or authorize the levy of a graduated income tax.

Sec. 3. The property of the State, counties and other municipal corporations, both real and personal, and such other property, or part thereof, as may be owned by, or held in trust for, agricultural or horticultural societies, non profit hospitals or schools, religious institutions, cemeteries, or charitable institutions and used exclusively for one or more of such purposes, may be exempted from taxation; but such exemption shall be only by general law. In the assessment of real estate incurred by public easement, any depreciation occasioned by such easement may be deducted in the valuation of such property. This section shall not deprive the General Assembly of power to classify property for taxation as provided in section 1 of this Article.

Sec. 9. The General Assembly may vest the corporate authorities of cities, towns and villages with power to make local improvements by special assessment, or by special taxation on contiguous property, or otherwise. For all other corporate purposes, all municipal corporations may be vested with authority to levy and collect taxes subject to the restrictions of sections 1 and 2 of this Article.

Sec. 10. The General Assembly shall not impose taxes upon municipal corporations, or the inhabitants or property thereof, for corporate purposes, but shall require the corporate authorities to levy taxes for the payment of liabilities incurred under authority of law. Private property shall not be liable to be taken or sold for the payment of the corporate liabilities of a municipal corporation.

Section 13 of Article 9 of this Constitution is repealed.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IX will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 9, AND 10 OF ARTICLE IX AND FOR THE REPEAL OF SECTION 13 OF

ARTICLE IX

(Revenue Amendment)
Explanation of Amendment
This amendment would revise Section 1 of Article IX of the State Constitution so as to permit the General Assembly to classify property for tax purposes, subject to the following restrictions: (1) the classifications are to be based on the nature and characteristics of the property and not on the nature, characteristics, residence or business of the owner or the amount or number owned; (2) all real estate is to constitute one class, except that lands used for forestry purposes and mineral rights in land may each be classified separately; and (3) if any class of property is taxed by valuation, such tax is to be uniform as to the class.

This amendment would also revise and simplify Section 2 of Article IX, dealing with the levy of miscellaneous types of taxes, but would require such taxes to be uniform as to the same class of subjects within the territorial limits of the authority levying the tax. The levy of a graduated income tax would be forbidden.

Other changes are merely routine. This amendment revises Section 3 to require ownership or its equivalent—and not mere use—as a basis for exemption of charitable, religious, and other similar property from taxation. In addition, non-profit hospitals would be added to the list of institutions and purposes for which the General Assembly may grant tax exemption by general law.

Sections 9 and 10 would be revised to subject the taxing powers of cities and other local governments to the same restrictions as apply to the General Assembly. The language in regard to obligations of these governments would be broadened, requiring them to levy taxes not merely — as now — for "debts contracted" but rather for "liabilities incurred."

This amendment would, in addition, repeal obsolete Section 13, which was adopted in 1890 to authorize the corporate authorities of Chicago to issue Columbia Exposition bonds.

Seven American Soldiers Go On Trial in Germany for Raping Girl

WUERZBURG, Germany (U) — Seven American soldiers go on trial today for the mass rape of a 15-year-old German girl. The verdict could have an important effect on recently disturbed German-American relations.

The seven Americans, four of them teen-agers, were accused of raping the young girl in a woods near here on July 9. The act brought to a head a wave of German criticism of brutal action by U. S. and other troops stationed along the Iron Curtain in West Germany.

The Communists and the non-Communists were observing the trial with almost equal interest—the Communists for powerful propaganda material and the non-Communists to see a test of American policy and friendship with the West German republic.

Every German newspaper—on both sides of the Iron Curtain—was giving the trial wide publicity. The trial was before a military court, with five Army lawyers appointed to defend the men. The seven accused faced death by hanging if convicted. Investigating military police have reported all made "implicating" statements.

Observers said if the seven are given light sentences, or sentences lighter than the German public thinks they deserve, a new wave of demands is expected to swell across Germany calling for the expulsion of all foreign troops.

The Army named Brig. Gen. Farmer Edwards of St. Louis to head the nine-man court. Maj. John F. Kearns of Fonda, N. Y., was designated law officer.

The men, all members of the 85th Infantry Regiment of the 10th Division, were: Pfc. Edward L. Brown, 18, of Norwalk, Conn.; Pvt. Melvin F. Carter, 24, of Harrisonburg, Va.; Pfc. James E. Wilson, 18, of Wilmington, Del.; Pvt. Clifton Franks, 20, of Omaha, Neb.; Pvt. James Gordon, 23, of Alachua, Fla.; Pfc. Fred Chandler, 21, of Kansas City, Mo.; and Pfc. Raymond I. Kasey, 18, of Roanoke, Va.

Francisco. I believe Richard Nixon will be the selection.

But I think this: The President is the one man who can stop all the speculation and discussion by a flat, unequivocal statement of his choice. I think the quicker he does it the better off the Republican Party will be.

There is no use beating about the bush. All this lullaballoo about the vice presidential nomination is uncertainty about Mr. Eisenhower's health for the next four years. How Knox Received News

Thinking back 20 years, I had no preconceived choice for a running mate. There was Frank Knox, the Chicago publisher who withdrew in my favor. And there was Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan. Knox had no idea he would get the nomination.

In fact he and Mrs. Knox and his secretary stopped at an eating place in Indiana while the convention was in progress. A radio was on in the next room. Knox asked the secretary to go turn it up so they could hear "who is being picked for vice president."

The secretary ran back to Knox, "My God, they're nominating you!"

There is a great parallel to the 1956 national conventions and those of 20 years ago.

Each nominee appears to be known in advance; the country's economy is on the upbeat; and a popular president is seeking a second term. GOP Is "In"

The difference, of course, is that the Democrats had the White House in 1936. The Republicans are in today.

The Democrats now are up against the same thing we Republicans had to face two decades ago. Their nominee—and it seems to be Adlai Stevenson again—must buck that same stone wall.

I know how difficult it is from experience. The American people have a rough rule of thumb on election years. They judge their president mainly on whether times are good or bad.

Someone asked me the other day how the Republican Party has changed since I became the GOP nominee at the age of 48.

Mr. Eisenhower's middle-of-the-road philosophy definitely is to the left of my middle-of-the-road. In these last 20 years, though, that is a natural development. But Ike's appointments have been to the right of what mine would have been had I been elected.

Signs Bill to Cut Amusement Tax

WASHINGTON (U) — President Eisenhower has signed a bill cancelling the 10 per cent federal excise tax on tickets to movies, plays, concerts, sports events and similar amusements costing 50 cents or less.

Previously the exemption was 50 cents. Increasing it to 90 cents will cost the treasury an estimated $60 million a year in revenues.

The bill—signed Monday—was sponsored by Rep. Cecil R. King (D-Calif) and backed by theater owners whose business has been hit in recent years by the advent of television. King said it would "save 5,000 movie houses from going out of business."

The President also signed bills that:

—Permit the Atomic Energy Commission and colleges and universities to buy atomic reactors for training scientists. Also make it a federal offense to trespass on atomic energy installations or smuggle weapons and other dangerous items into such areas.

—Liquidate about $800,000 worth of enemy assets seized in World War I and still held by the Alien Property Office.

A century ago a pessimistic Mormon newspaper described southeastern Utah's canyons, mountains, and spectacular natural beauty as "one vast 'contiguity of waste' and measurably valueless, excepting for nomadic purposes hunting grounds for Indians, and to hold the world together."

Miss Joan Henson Shares Lead in Presentation of Finian's Rainbow at SIU

Another milestone in the entertainment field was reached on the campus of Southern Illinois University last week end when the Department of Music presented "Finian's Rainbow," a famous musical comedy.

It was the first attempt at SIU to stage such a lavish musical production, and it was labeled a success and proved to be highly entertaining for the crowds who witnessed the three nightly shows.

Miss Joan Henson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henson of Carrier Mills, shared the female lead with Peggy Vallett of Herrin. Miss Henson played the lead in the Saturday night show and Miss Vallett had the lead in the Friday and Sunday presentations.

The show was a Summer Opera Workshop production and featured more than 60 SIU and area elementary and high school students. The cast was in rehearsal for two months.

The male singing lead was played by Bob Walker of Herrin. David Davidson of Eldorado was in the cast.

Miss Henson, a music major, will be a junior in the College of Music at Southern Illinois University this fall.

Feels Even Better than He Looks!

Ever notice how a man looks when he takes the wheel of his new Cadillac and heads for his favorite highway?

Take a good look the next time you have a chance—and we think you'll see a happy man!

There's just no mistaking the pride and satisfaction that show in his face . . . or the happiness and contentment that reside in his heart.

And, as any experienced Cadillac owner can testify, he feels every bit as wonderful as he looks! For a journey in the "car of cars" is both a marvelous tonic for the spirit . . . and a wonderful opportunity for physical rest and relaxation.

It starts, in fact, the instant he slips into the driver's seat and rests his hands on the wheel. Those deep, soft cushions hold him in perfect comfort . . . and he is literally surrounded by beauty and luxury.

Even before he sets the car in motion, some of life's care and worry seem to go out of his day.

And then comes the miracle of Cadillac performance. It's an inspiration just to sit at the wheel . . . to look out over that graceful hood . . . and to watch the miles flow gracefully by.

And how easy it all is. Just a gesture of his hand on the steering wheel and the car follows effortlessly and obediently. Just a touch of his toe to the accelerator and the car answers instantly to the command. Just a nudge of his foot on the braking pedal and the car comes to a smooth, safe, silken stop.

Sound wonderful? Well, we sincerely urge you to come in at your first convenience—spend an hour at the wheel—and see for yourself.

We'll be happy to give you the keys . . . and the car . . . and some wonderful news about the cost and delivery advantages that you will enjoy if you make your decision for Cadillac today.

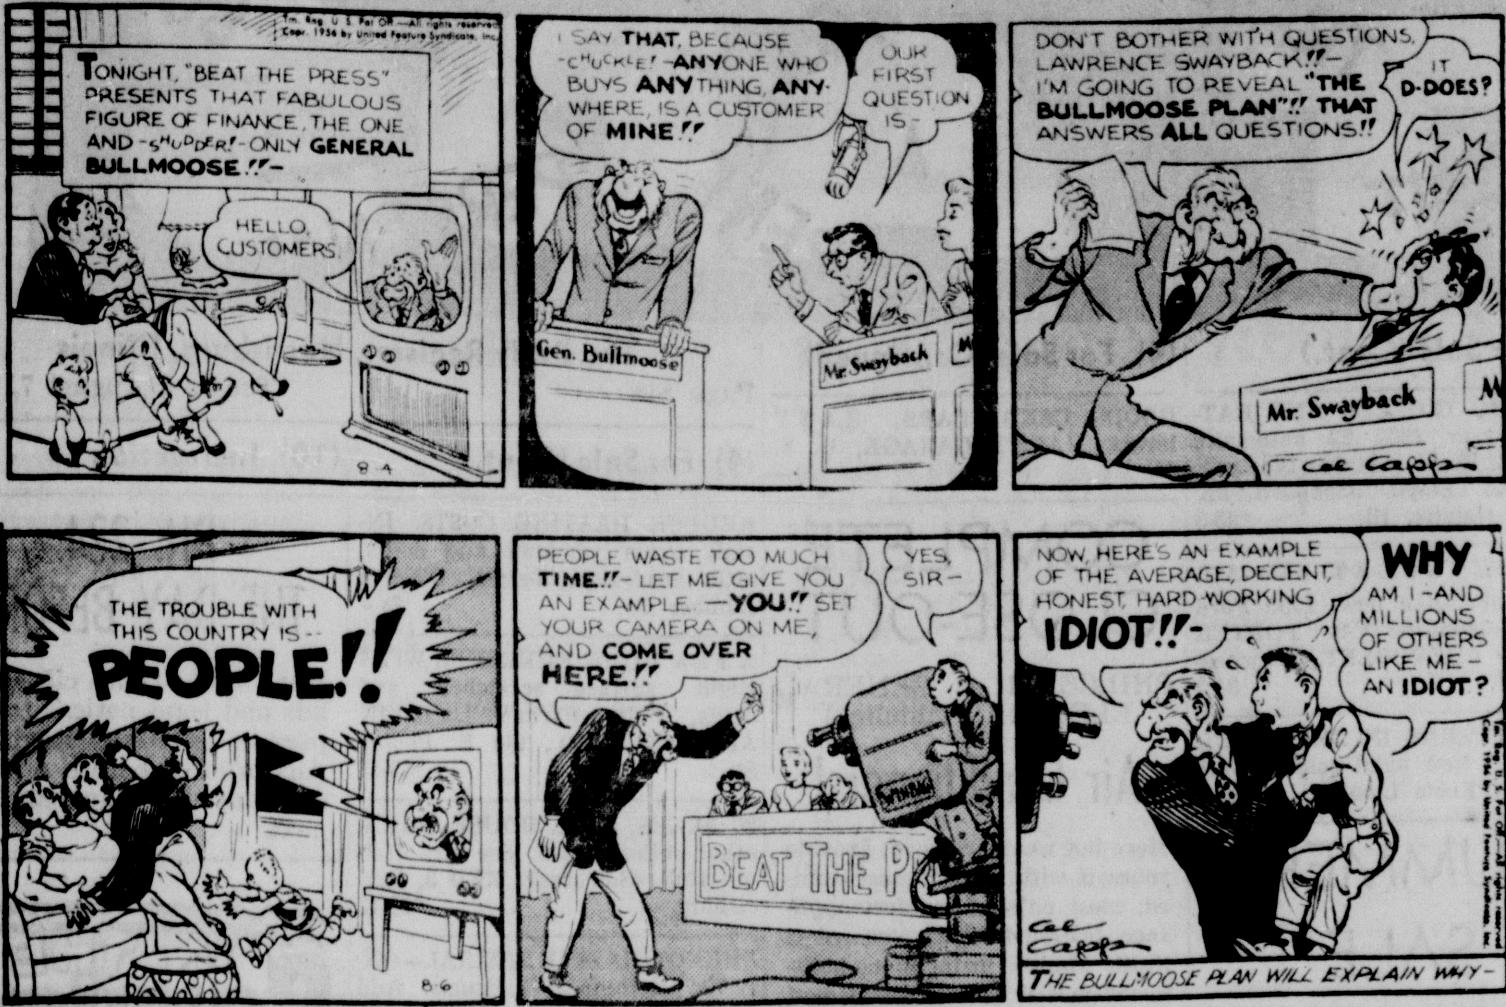

Why not stop in and see us soon?

The Blonde Cried MURDER

By Brett Halliday

THE STORY: A frightened woman tells Mike Shayne the body of a murdered man, her brother, disappeared from a room at the Hibiscus Hotel. She was pursued by the murderer, a scar-faced man. Mike hides the girl, after a knock comes on the door. He admits a scar-faced man who says he is the girl's brother. He says there was no body in room 316 of the Hibiscus.

Shayne nodded slowly. "I know. That fits her story, too. About the body of her brother disappearing from the room while she was telephoning for help from another room."

"But I'm her brother," fumed Paulson helplessly. "Let me see her, Mr. Shayne. Let me talk to her. You can be right there and listen. Don't you see she needs help--making up a crazy story about me being murdered and then running away at the sight of me?"

"Somebody," agreed Shayne, "is sure making up a crazy story." He drummed blunt fingertips on the arm of his chair indecisively. "Couple of things we can check without too much trouble."

"Then start checking them," burst out Paulson. "Get the bottom of this. You claim Nellie is all right and you can produce her any time, but how do I know. Prove it."

Shayne said equably, "You'll have to take my word for it." He went to the telephone and called the number of the Hibiscus Hotel which he had looked up earlier. When the switchboard answered, he asked, "Do you have a Miss Paulson registered? Nellie Paulson from Jacksonville?"

"Three-sixteen," Evelyn replied at once. "But Miss Paulson isn't in just now."

"I know. Look, anything more on bodies appearing and disappearing from her room?"

There was a long pause. Then Evelyn said primly, "I'm sure I don't know what you mean, sir. Who is calling?"

Shayne said, "Never mind," and hung up. He added to Paulson who had risen and was looking at him eagerly, "That much checks. Miss Paulson has 316 and she isn't in."

"Well--what are you waiting for?"

"One more detail," Shayne called the Roney Plaza. He asked again, "Do you have a Miss Paulson registered? Miss Nellie Paulson from Jacksonville?"

It took quite a bit longer to get an answer this time. And it was decisively negative: "Sorry, but we have no Miss Paulson."

Shayne hung up with a shrug. He told Paulson, "I guess it's about time we tried to straighten this out." He strode to the kitchen door and knocked on it. "Nellie. This is Mike Shayne. It's all right to come out now."

There was no response from the kitchen. Paulson shoved Shayne aside and rattled the knob frantically. "Nellie! Do you hear me, Nellie? It's Bert, darling. Don't you hear? Everything's all right. I swear it is. I've been so worried."

In Memoriam
In memory of Margaret (Hazel)
Cable who passed away August 7,
1955:
We often sit and think of you
When we are all alone;
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Our hearts are filled with sadness,
Our eyes shed many tears;
God only knows how we miss you
At the end of one long year.
Sadly missed by Sister and Bro-

Aug. 7, 1946, 10 years ago today.
The moon and stars are shining
Upon a lonely grave.
Where sleeps our mother and wife,
We loved but could not save.
We often sit and think of you,
And think of how you died;
To think you could not say goodbye,
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best,
May God grant you eternal rest.
Sadly missed by John Souheaver and children and grandchildren. *34-1

We have you in our hearts.

Babe Zaharias Undergoes Fourth Cancer Operation

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Babe Zaharias, the world's greatest woman athlete, was reported in "satisfactory" condition today after a fourth operation in her fight against cancer.

A spokesman at John Sealy Hospital said the three-hour operation Monday night was to relieve an "obstruction in the intestine." But it had nothing to do with surgery July 14 in which a sensory nerve in the neck was severed to relieve pain in the lower extremities, the spokesman said.

The 42-year-old athlete went into the operating room at 8:30 p. m.

Before going into surgery, the courageous Babe made a remark to her husband, George Zaharias, that is completely typical of her. "We're not leading the league yet. Guess we'll have to play it off," she said.

Mrs. Zaharias, a great Olympics star before she became the most famous of women golfers, entered John Sealy Hospital this latest time on March 29.

She was operated on for rectal cancer on April 17, 1953. And on June 22, 1955, she underwent an operation for a ruptured disc which doctors said had nothing to do with cancer.

There were no signs of post-operative complications and none is expected, the hospital spokesman said.

Babe has lost almost 50 pounds from her normal weight of 140.

Reds Purchase Larry Jansen

CINCINNATI (AP)—Larry Jansen, 36-year old former ace of the New York Giants' pitching staff, was due to join the Cincinnati Reds tonight and was expected to be pressed into service as a starter against Milwaukee Friday.

Jansen was purchased by the Reds Monday from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League where he compiled an 11-2 record and a 2.57 earned run average in 98 innings.

Jansen hurled for the Giants from 1947 until early 1954 when he suffered a lame back. All told, he won 120 games and lost 86 with the Giants.

He was the winning pitcher in the Giants' famous playoff victory against the Dodgers in 1951 after relieving starter Sal Maglie.

Rookie Comes Through for Stengel as Yanks Increase Lead; Reds Edge Cards

New York Beats
Red Sox, 4-3; Cubs
Defeat Braves, 5-4

By United Press
Casey Stengel, a wily old codger who generally frowns on gambling, came up with a long shot—exactly as his Yankee players predicted he would—to halt both a six-game losing streak and talk that the Bronx Bombers might be starting to buckle.

"Leave it to old Case," said the Yankees, even while they were in the throes of their longest losing streak of the season. "He'll think of something and when he does, we'll be okay again."

Stengel did think of something, rookie pitcher Ralph Terry fresh up from Denver of the American Association, and when all the dust cleared, the youngster picked up his first major league victory with a 4-3 decision over the red-hot Red Sox Monday night and the Yankees increased their lead to eight games in the American League race.

Two Hurlers Helped

True, Terry needed help from relievers Tom Morgan and Tommy Byrne, but the important thing from the Yankees' view point was that they were back on the right track again and old Case had called the turn on his long shot gamble.

Terry, a 20-year old right-hander brought up from the minors only last Friday, blanked Boston for the first four innings as the Yanks got to Tom Brewer for three runs in the fourth. Jerry Coleman's two-run single highlighted the frame.

The Red Sox got to Terry for a run in the fifth inning and after Jim Piersall hit a two-run homer in the sixth, Morgan relieved Terry. Byrne entered in the seventh and pitched hitless ball thereafter to nail down the victory.

In the only other American League game scheduled, right-hander Paul Foytack pitched a five-hitter in leading the Detroit Tigers to a 9-0 victory over the Cleveland Indians. Herb Score, Cleveland's starter, gave up single runs in the first and second innings and the Tigers made it a fourth with seven runs in the eighth. Ray Boone's triple with the bases full off reliever Bob Feller was the key blow of the frame.

Cubs Edge Braves

The Chicago Cubs pushed across a run in the 11th inning on Pete Whisenant's sacrifice fly to defeat Milwaukee, 5-4, and cut the Braves' National League lead to 1 1/2 games over the idle second-place Dodgers.

Dee Fondy opened the 11th with a walk off reliever Dave Jolly, advanced to third on Walt Moryn's double and came home on Whisenant's blow. Jim Davis, Chicago's third pitcher, was credited with the victory. Monte Irvin hit his 12th homer for the Cubs and Ernie Banks his 25th. Hank Aaron of the Braves extended his hitting streak to 23 consecutive games with a single in the first inning.

In the only other National League game, Alex Grammas singled home Gus Bell in the 10th inning to give the Cincinnati Reds a 7-6 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. Bell opened the 10th with his fourth straight hit, a double, and crossed after two were out on Grammas' single. Bell also hit his 20th homer.

Reliever Hersh Freeman gained his 10th victory while Larry Jackson was the loser.

PINCH-HITTER—Dale Mitchell shows Walter Alton the bat with which he hopes to give the Brooklyn Dodgers badly-needed pinch-hits. The veteran was obtained from Indians.

UCLA, Southern Cal Expected to Quit Coast Loop

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

The Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic Conference has put a booklet in the mail which delves deeply into the football conflagration that hit the blue Pacific's shores.

Reaching for our sharpest reading glasses, we carefully went through its 40 pages. The brochure reads like a business analysis of United States Steel, or maybe that of a big oil operator in east Texas. It's a slick paper job, cost something to print. Finished perusing it, you have nothing more than a batch of rules, by-laws and high-sounding double talk about a game played by boys.

Basically, the mess on the coast comes down to the University of California at Los Angeles and Southern California paying star football players $40 a month more than a totally unworkable code permitted. The first thought is that the faculty athletic representatives obtained pawns in a million-dollar-a-year business at bargain basement rates.

THE WAY THE THING stacks up, to an observer wading through six-foot high stacks of literature on the affair, the so-called scandal on the golden slope is like the old basketball fixes. So many are involved that you wonder whether anyone was innocent of circum-venting impossible regulations.

On the serious side, if you take a college game that way, is the straight report that UCLA and Southern California will withdraw from the league. Situated in the metropolitan city of Los Angeles, the Bruins and Trojans probably would be better off without people to the north who profess to believe that school can field a representative team in high pressure football without making it possible for the average lad to get through college.

As far as UCLA, the main target, is concerned, the brass suspended every member of its 1955 freshman and varsity squads for a year.

CHAPTER VI of Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt's booklet is entitled, "Penalties Against Students."

"The conference has held to the philosophy that college students are in fact adults and as such should assume individual responsibility for their conduct and livelihood," reads the report.

Why the undergraduates? It's the front office people condoning highly-specialized recruiting and well-paid career coaches and alumni who should be penalized. How many 17-year-old kids and their untrained parents are able to say "no" to the high-pressure tactics employed in big league college football today?

I'd like to ask the more sanctioning faculty athletic representatives of the Pacific Coast Conference one question. It is: "How interested would you athletic departments be in these youngsters had they no football ability?"

Students adults? What we need are faculty adults.

The simple solution to the college football problem is: Give the boy the opportunity to go through school . . . and police the rest of it.

20 Trotters to Battle It Out In Hambletonian

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—Horsemen and fans alike are anticipating another wild and exciting scene Wednesday when 20 three-year old trotters battle it out over Good Time Park's kite-shaped track in the 31st running of the $100,000 Hambletonian Stakes.

Because of the bulky field—the third largest in the history of the event—some serious crowding is expected to take place, especially on the sharp first turn, as the drivers attempt to gain a favorable position without losing too much ground.

The starters will break in two tiers, 10 in the first and the other 10 in the back row. As usual, a trotter must win two heats to gain this richest and most important prize in harness racing.

In the important draw for post positions, favored Egyptian Princess won the No. 3 spot in the first row. Lining up right alongside the Princess will be Saboteur, the probable second choice in the betting.

Nimble Colby, another heavily-backed entry, also wound up in the favorable first tier at No. 8. However, Ego Hanover's multitude of backers moaned regretfully when they learned he "won" the next-to-last spot in the second row.

The other starters in the first tier will be Dial Tone, Darn Gay, Torrence Hanover, H. K. Hanover and Bold Rodney. Placed in the back tier with Ego Hanover were the Intruder, Demon Always, Lullwater Victory, Valiant Rodney, Go, Magnus Hanover, Newport Del, Hoot Dolmont and Specialty.

The Detroit Red Wings is the only hockey club to win the Stanley Cup series in eight straight games.

LAST LEG?—Ted Williams rests on one leg after reaching first. But Ted's showing in the west has Boston Red Sox followers wondering whether this isn't his swan song as a dangerous hitter.

DOWNSTATE FISHERMAN'S GUIDE:

Little Grassy Crapple Catches Improve

By Pete Brown
(From reports by the Southern Illinois Cooperative Fisheries Research Laboratory and the Illinois Department of Conservation.)

Crappie catches at Lake Murphysboro and Little Grassy have been the fisherman's best bet in southern Illinois during the past week.

On a single day, a score of anglers pulled in 121 crappie at Murphysboro, with 92 of that total caught between 2 p. m. and 6:30 p. m., running five to 14 inches. The only other catches reported by the same group were a few redear sunfish.

At Little Grassy, Willie Crowell of Carbondale collected a haul of 130 crappie and Bob Kelley, Cobden, took 85. Bluegill were also running pretty fair. Bass fishing was poor, however, at Little Grassy and other downstate lakes; the best specimen reported at Little Grassy was a six-pounder, by George Bates, East St. Louis, trolling a Bomber.

Crab Orchard was still well below par. Twenty-eight hours of fishing on the lake one day last week in warm and clear weather yielded only four large-mouth, according to a creel census of boat fishermen. The catch was evenly divided between minnows and plugs.

One observer at Crab Orchard, reminding that many fishermen have been coming in empty-handed since July 4, said the same conditions prevailed at this time last year. Decided improvements were noted after Aug. 15 a year ago.

At Horseshoe Lake near Cairo, anglers worked hard for crappie and a few drumheads and yellow bullheads.

Pankey's, Raleigh, Pickford's Win Games in Kiwanis League

By David Nelson
Pankey's shut out Gibbons, 5-0; Raleigh beat the Pirates, 8-2, and Pickford's nosed out VFW, 12-11, in Kiwanis games Monday at the VFW park.

Barrett, Pankey's pitcher, hurled a three-hitter to lead the Bakers to a 5-0 shut out over Gibbons. Leghorn got two hits and Gibbons one for the losers' only safe blows. Pankey's got only five hits off Beal but made each one count for a run. Stunson, with a single and a double, led the winners at bat, with Gibbons, Barrett and Owens getting the other safeties.

Raleigh could muster only two hits off the offerings of Howton, Pirate pitcher, but errors and walks accounted for eight runs as Raleigh won, 8-2. B. Summers, with a home run and a single, led the Pirates' attack, with Smith and Morgan getting the other hits off Cochran, Raleigh's pitcher. Farmer and Cochran had the only base hits for the winners.

Pickford's won its fourth straight game in the second half of play by downing a fighting VFW team, 12-11, to keep the lead in the Three-I league. Donnie Pickford and Donnie Beggs pitched for Pickford's and allowed six hits, with Moore leading the attack for VFW with two hits. Feazel, Furlong, Henshaw and Aldridge picked up their other safeties. Bob Pavelonis had a triple and two singles, Nelson singled twice and Wasson, Beggs and Vinson got single hits to round out the winners' eight-hit attack.

SOAPBOX RACING on Cherry Street Hill is being held each Sunday afternoon and as many as 13 of the homemade racers have participated in an afternoon's program. Last Sunday the intense heat held down the number of entries, but the boys who showed up had a good, interesting program. The Harrisburg Lions club has voted to sponsor the program for the remainder of the season and will award a trophy to the champion. As considerable time is required by the boys to keep their racers in running order, it has been decided to only run until Sunday, Sept. 2, the last Sunday before the start of the school term. In top photo six racers get set for a race down the hill—front row, left to right, John Warmelink, Sonny Farrar, Curt Williams; back row, left to right, Tommy Gilliam, Reggy Blades and Jimmy Gilliam; in lower photo the racers are speeding along, about half way down the first block. Williams, Warmelink and Tommy Gilliam finished one, two, three in the race. City Patrolman Pat Atkinson has supervised the races the past three weeks. (Daily Register Staff Photos)

50 Dead, 450 Hurt in Colombia Munitions Blast

CALI, Colombia (AP)—Seven army trucks loaded with ammunition and fuel were reported today to have blown up near the center of the city.

The explosion blasted eight city blocks, killing at least 50 persons, injuring many others and causing heavy property damage.

It was estimated that at least 450 persons were injured.

A two-story military police headquarters, a number of cafes, crowded because it was the eve of a national holiday, and a theatre were among the structures razed by the explosion.

Fires broke out in the area, adding to the disaster. The scene of the blast is only 12 blocks from the center of the city.

An area three miles from the scene was rocked by the blast. Window panes were shattered and debris showered throughout the affected district.

A nationwide airlift was bringing doctors, nurses, medicines and other relief from all over Colombia.

Cali, capital of Cauca Valley department, is a city of about 100,000 population.

Voting Light In Missouri

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Voting was light throughout the state today as Missouri voters selected nominees for Congress, governor and four other state offices.

Although generally fair skies and warm temperatures were favorable for balloting, election officials said the early voting indicated one of the lightest turnout of voters for a primary in many years.

A dearth of candidates for major offices and commanding leads built up by organization backed candidates were blamed for the voter apathy.

U. S. Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. was unopposed in the Democratic primary. Albert E. Schoenbeck, a St. Louis railroad attorney, and Herbert Douglas, a Neosho, Mo., lawyer, lead a field of four candidates for the GOP nomination for senator.

Plan to Cut Size Of Air Force

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department is preparing to reduce the planned size of the Air Force, authoritative sources disclosed today.

They said the staggering power and increasing variety of nuclear weapons and guided missiles will make possible cuts in both manpower and the numbers of combat units.

The Air Force now is expected to reach its planned goal of 137 wings by next June 30 then gradually fall back to a smaller number of combat units.

A wing varies in size from 75 fighter planes to 30 heavy bombers with aircraft crews and supporting units.

Name Operating Committee for Water System

A two-man operating committee, picked from the membership of the Harrisburg Water Board, was appointed at the regular meeting of the Water Board, held Monday evening. The committee was given the authority and responsibility to direct the operations of the Harrisburg water system.

Cecil Wren and Carl Tuttle, groceryman in Gaskins City and Dorrisville respectively, compose the committee and will work closely with Superintendent Amos Doom.

Doom and members of the Water Board have been under considerable "fire" recently due to the taste and odor in the water and it is thought a lot of the trouble has been due to the lack of central authority for the system's operation.

Doom was instructed by members of the operating committee that they would work closely with him on any problem, but that he was expected to assume control of the routine operation of the system, and would be held completely responsible for the condition of the water system in Harrisburg. In emergency cases Doom and the operating committee will make the decisions.

Walkout Ends At Murphysboro

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (AP)—A three-day walkout which idled 600 workers at the Brown Shoe Co. plant here has ended.

Workers returned to their jobs Monday after voting to submit a grievance to a union-company committee. The workers are members of District 50, United Mine Workers of America.

A walkout of 40 workers last Thursday in the shot bottoming department forced closure of the plant. A union spokesman said the dispute hinged on the piece rate for heel attaching.

Mrs. Edward G. Robinson Wins Divorce, Two Million Dollar Settlement

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. Gladys Robinson, 60, has been awarded an uncontested divorce and an estimated two-million-dollar settlement from actor Edward G. Robinson.

While Mrs. Robinson testified her husband of 29 years wanted a divorce so he could lead his own life, her 23-year-old son pleaded innocent to felony drunk driving in an adjoining courtroom Monday.

Mrs. Robinson and the "tough guy" actor separated February, 1955.

5-Year-Old Girl Feared Kidnaped

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Hundreds of volunteers joined authorities today in a door-to-door search for a five-year-old Waterloo, Iowa, girl feared kidnaped from this beach resort area.

The girl, Barbara L. Blasier, vanished while playing in the sand Sunday as her father, Gordon Blasier, and brother, Larry Wayne, 8, were swimming in Balboa Bay channel. When lifeguards failed to find her body in the narrow channel, police said it appeared the child had been kidnaped.

Officers said dragging operations would continue but pressed their investigation on the possibility that little Barbara was the victim of a sex deviate. No trace has been found of the child since her father left her to play in the sand while he took his son swimming. Blasier was vacationing here with his children while the mother, who is expecting another child, had remained in Iowa.

be a concession to Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, whose London ambassador saw Lloyd Monday. Nehru will give India's answer to the Western bid Wednesday.

Indonesia, often linked with the "neutralist" bloc, announced at The Hague it was calling a preliminary conference to discuss the Suez crisis. It invited Egypt and the Colombo powers—Ceylon, India, Pakistan, Burma and Indonesia.

An Indonesian spokesman said his government hoped to hear an explanation of Egypt's stand before deciding upon the Western Big Three invitation to the London conference.

French newspapers speculated the Anglo-French allied commander would be Adm. Earl Mountbatten, 56-year-old cousin of Queen Elizabeth and Britain's first sea lord. Informed sources in Paris said the fighting forces of the two nations would be merged, with the staff drawn from officers of both nations.

Ten nations were officially stated to have formally accepted the invitation to the London conference—Australia, Ethiopia, Holland, Italy, Japan, Norway, Pakistan, Portugal, Sweden and Turkey. Unofficial reports said Iran and New Zealand had accepted.

Democratic Congressmen Charge Administration Drifting to War

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION HEADQUARTERS, Chicago (AP)—Ninety-one Democratic congressmen charged today that the Eisenhower administration is drifting toward war in the Near East.

They asked Democratic platform writers to commit their party to a new policy of "vigorous leadership" to keep the peace.

The 108-member Platform Committee, which began laying the groundwork for a vigorous party blast at Republican foreign policy, also heard:

Former Assistant Secretary of State William Benton, the leadoff witness, asserted that the nation has been lucky to "avoid disaster" under Eisenhower foreign policy. Benton, former Connecticut senator, said "it's high time to return our foreign policy to competent and experienced hands" of the Democrats.

Robert R. Nathan, speaking for Americans for Democratic Action, urged the platform writers to avoid a foreign policy plank so "politically opportunistic and rigid" as to handicap a Democratic administration elected under its provisions.

Demilitarize Foreign Aid

Nathan, an economist and chairman of the ADA national executive committee, called on the committee to "demilitarize our foreign aid programs" in writing a foreign policy plank.

"We hear too much talk of the danger of entering into a competitive race with the Soviet Union in the area of economic assistance," Nathan said. Such competition, he said, is "much preferable to competition in military terms."

Nathan said the administration has indulged in a "frenzy of pomania," expanding military agreements and building bases without regard to resulting bitterness. He called for a review of such arrangements.

The 91 Democratic congressmen submitted a proposed Near East plank through Rep. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.).

Dodd was among a number of witnesses at the committee's day-long foreign policy hearings to charge the administration with fumbling, vacillation and lack of leadership in its world relations.

Danger in Mideast

Dodd said he is concerned at the danger of hot war in the Middle East, and the free world's loss of friends and influence in the area.

Dodd said Israel is "directly menaced and may be marked for destruction" at the hands of the Arabs unless prompt action is taken. He said the administration, "which might have moved at once to isolate and quarantine a dictator" in Egypt, instead continued to court Premier Nasser and declined to ship arms to Israel.

Similar price increases are expected from other producers as the nation's steel mills swing into production following the five-week strike of 650,000 millworkers.

The U. S. Steel boost hiked the average price of steel to about $138.50 a ton.

The increase adds about $16 to the cost of making a 1957 automobile, about $1 to the cost of a refrigerator and about four to five cents to the steel in a $25 toaster.

U. S. Steel, which accounts for about one third of the nation's steel production, said the increase "reflects the persistently rising costs with which the company is confronted, including the initial higher employment costs resulting from the new labor agreement" with the U.S.W.

Clifford Hood, U. S. Steel president, said the increase, second highest since the end of World War II, falls short of meeting his company's needs for revenue to offset depreciation and replacements and the cost of an expansion program.

The industry boosted prices an average $7.35 a ton last year to pay for a 15.2 cents per man hour wage increase.

First drive-in filling station in the United States was opened at Pittsburgh, Pa., in December of 1913.
